

JMU's LLI Genealogy Group in Harrisonburg

“The Diggers”

INTERESTED IN FAMILY HISTORY?
IT'S ADDICTIVE!

Learn about your ancestry
and discover your roots!

Join us each month

for an informal interesting exchange of ideas!

OUR PURPOSE:

1. To provide the opportunity and the place for people interested in genealogy to discuss their interests, to share their skills, and to learn from the skill of others.
2. To encourage smaller “Networking Groups” to enhance bases of knowledge.
3. To encourage beginning family historians.

Informative speakers focus on a variety of topics, including

- How to gather, organize, and store your data
- Search courthouses, libraries and museums
- Preserve family documents, photos, and heirlooms
- DNA testing

“You found who in your family tree?”

So What Are You

Waiting For?

On the 2nd Friday of each month from 10:00am – 12:00, join us at the National Business College, Room 106, 1515 Country Club Road in Harrisonburg.

For more information, contact the JMU Lifelong Learning Institute at 540-568-2923

or Steve Barranco at sbarranco@att.net or 540-434-4552.

Bring your ideas, questions, expertise so everyone can benefit.

