Harriet G. Effinger — Plt
vs
William Peters & others — Defts
In Chancery

This cause came on to be heard this 20th day of December, 1869, by consent on the bill exhibits answers of all the defendants with general replications thereto, and was argued by counsel. On consideration whereof, it is adjudged ordered, and decreed that the plaintiff, Harriet G. Effinger, recover from the defendant, William Peters, the sum of seventy seven dollars, and thirty three cents, with interest thereon, from Oct. 31. 1869, till paid, and it further appearing that a lien has been retained in the deed, conveying to said William Peters, the lot of land, mentioned in the bill and proceedings. It is adjudged ordered and decreed that Charles E. Haas who is hereby appointed a special Commissioner for that purpose, do proceed, after ten days notice, published in the "Old Commonwealth" to sell on the premises, the lot of land mentioned in the plaintiffs bill, on the following terms two thirds of the purchase money cash, and the residue to be paid on the 21st March 1870, with interest on said deferred payments from the day of sale. But the said Charles E. Haas, is not to receive any money arising from said sale until he execute a bond with good security before the Clerk of this Court, in the penalty of $400 conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty, as such special commissioner. And it is further ordered, by consent that from the proceeds of said sale, the said Charles E. Haas shall first pay off and discharge the single bill mentioned in said bill and proceedings, as due to the plaintiff, and the residue of the cash payment the said Commissioner is directed to apply to the payment of the costs of this suit and sale, and the balance, if any, the said Commissioner is directed to pay over to James A. Peters cestui que trust, in the deed of trust mentioned in the bill and proceedings - as the said commissioner is directed to report to the next term of Court.

John Elrick — Plt
vs
William J. Thompson — Defts
In Chancery

This cause, in which the plaintiff appears to have proceeded against the defendant, who is out of this Commonwealth, in the mode prescribed by law against absent defendants, and he still failing to appear and answer, came on to be heard, on this 20th day of December, 1869, upon the bill and exhibits filed. And it appearing to the Court, that more than one months has elapsed since the completion of the order of Publication against the defendant, William J. Thompson, and he still failing to appear, the bill is taken for confessed. And the cause was argued by Counsel. Upon consideration, whereof the Court is of opinion that the plaintiff is entitled to recover of the defendant the sum of $204.37 in gold and silver coin of the United States, with legal interest thereon from the 2nd day of March, 1866 till paid, subject to a credit of $45.00 of August 2nd 1867, and of $10.00, as of October the second the 2nd 1867

And the Court doth adjudge, order and decree, that unless the defendant or some one for him, shall within twenty days from this date pay to the plaintiff the above sum of $204.37 in gold and silver coin of the United States, with interest, as aforesaid, subject to the credits as aforesaid, that B. M. Rice, who is appointed a special Commissioner for that purpose, shall proceed to sell at public auction, the home and lot in the bill, and proceedings mentioned, to the highest bidder, on the following terms: One-third on confirmation of the sale, the balance in two equal payments, at six and twelve months, the purchaser giving bonds with good personal security for the deferred payments, and a lien to be retained as ultimate security, the whole of the purchase money to bear interest from the day of Sale, But before proceeding to sell said property, said Commissioner shall first give four weeks notice of time and place of sale, by posting handbills at three, or more, public places in the neighborhood, and shall before receiving any money, under this decree, execute before the Clerk of this Court, a bond in the penalty of $500, conditioned according to Law.

Samuel A. Rice is appointed surveyor of the road leading from (precinct No 212) to Alto pine Church in the room of George W. Rice who has been excused upon the ground that he is a minister of the Gospel

The Court directs that John Weaver, David Weaver, Daniel Gilbert, Hiram Locke, David Fairburn and George Coakley do in future work upon the road from Spring creek to intersect the Mossy Creek & Bridgewater & Paul's Mills Road (Precinct No 78) of which Abraham Glick is the surveyor

On the motion of Peter Paul, and it appearing to the Court that Joseph Byerly has been dead more than three months last past and no person having applied for letters of administration on his estate. It is ordered that O. C. Sterling, Sheriff of this County take into his possession the estate of said deceased, and administer the same according to Law

That Koogler should be authorized to collect the assets of the firm & pay the liabilities & should give bond and approved security in the penalty of $1500, for his faithful discharge of this duty. That the liabilities of the firm over and above the amount of assets collected should be paid by Koogler & Ragan in this proportion, Koogler to pay one third & Ragan two thirds. That the contract for the purchase of the land, mill & distillery &c by Ragan should be rescinded & Koogler should pay to Ragan the balance of the $750.00 paid on this contract after deducting the amount of Ragan's share of liability over and above the assets collected & the sum of $200.00 for rent of the 2/3 interest in land, mill & Distillery &c, for the time between the commencement & the Partnership & the granting of the injunction, & if these credits should amount to more than $750.00 Koogler should recover the balance from Ragan. The costs of the Chancery suit & arbitration (as to latter we award $10 to each arbitrator) should be divided between the parties equally said $30.00 to be paid by Koogler, one half out of the $750. if any remain after paying liabilities otherwise $15.00. Geo. G. Grattan. Wm B. Compton & James Kenney

And the said John R. Koogler having entered into bond before this Court with J. L. Sibert as his surety in the penalty of $1500 conditioned as set forth in the award, the said J. R. E. J. Sullivan, Pltff. } In Case. — Award.
C. A. Sprinkel & Co, Defts.

A matter of controversy having arisen and being now pending in the County Court of Rockingham, between E. J. Sullivan of the one part and Chas. A. Sprinkel & Nelson Sprinkel, doing busines under the style & firm of C. A. Sprinkel & Co, of the other part, in regard to a note for $865.00 executed by C. A. Sprinkel & Co, to said Sullivan, on 30th Sept. 1862, payable one day after date and credited by $405.00 paid 31st Dec. 1862 & by $80.00 paid May 26, 1863 - and the parties desiring to end said controversy, having submitted the same to the final award and determination of Wm. P. Grove, Samuel Shacklett and Samuel J. Harnsberger, whose decision, or a majority, is to be final. Now Know Ye, that we the undersigned Arbitrators having met in Harrisonburg, Va, on the 28th day of Febuary, 1871, and having fully heard the evidence introduced by the respective parties, and having maturely considered the same, do make and publish our Award as follows: "We find that the said C. A. Sprinkel & Co, are indebted to the said E. J. Sullivan upon the note aforesaid the sum of One Hundred & fifteen dollars and thirty five cents, with legal interest thereon from the 1st day of June 1863, till paid; - Our award, therefore, is, that the said E. J. Sullivan recover of the said C. A. Sprinkel & Co, the said sum of $115.35/100, with legal interest thereon from the 1st of June 1863 till paid, and that he recover the further sum of Fifteen Dollars, the costs of this Arbitration, which is to be paid to the Arbitrators - said sum to be in full satisfaction of the note aforesaid.

Given under our hands and seals this 28th day of Febuary, 1871.

Wm. P. Grove, (Seal)
Saml. Shacklett, (Seal)

I, the undersigned participated in the Arbitration above mentioned, and disagreed with the other Arbitrators, though I was present and heard fully the evidence and arguments of counsel as the third Arbitrator; but a majority of the three have decided the cause according to the submission. Witness my hand and seal this 28th Feby. 1871.

J. S. Harnsberger, (Seal)

Virginia,

In the Clerk's Office of the County Court of Rockingham County the 10th day of April, 1871-

E. H. Chase and Charles Chase, partners Trading under the name of E. H. Chase & Co. — In Debt.

C E. H. Boyd.

This day the Defendant E. H. Boyd, personally appeared in the Clerk's Office aforesaid, and acknowledged the Plaintiff's action, and confessed a Judgment for the sum of $543.38 cts, with interest and costs. It is therefore considered that the Plaintiff recover against the said Defendant, the sum of $543.38 cts with interest thereon from the 1st day of January, 1871, till paid, and the costs in this behalf expended.

In Vacation April 11, 1871.

To the Honorable James Kenney, Judge of the County Court of Rockingham County, Virginia.

Your Petitioners, Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, respectfully represent that they have been arrested and are now detained in the custody of L. S. Byrd Jailor of the County of Rockingham, upon a warrant charging your Petitioners with the larceny of seven Sheep of the value of twenty one dollars, on the ____ day of February 1870, Your Petitioners represent that the offence charged does not subject them to this mode of punishment, and they therefore pray that your Honor may hear their petition and accord them a hearing, and they will ever pray, &c.

Reuben Rigleman and Peter Rigleman,
By J. A. Liggett & Wm. H. Effinger.

State of Virginia,
County of Rockingham, to wit:

Personally appeared before the undersigned Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, and made oath that the statements contained in the foregoing paper are true to the best of their knowledge and belief.

M. M. Sibert, J. P.

The Commonwealth of Virginia

To L. S. Byrd Jailor of the County of Rockingham, Greeting:

We command you that the bodies of Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee detained by you, and under your custody, as it is said, together with the day and cause of their caption and detention, you have before me forthwith, at my Office in the Town of Harrisonburg, to do, submit to and receive all and singular those things which shall then and there be considered of them in this behalf. And have then there this writ. Witness James Kenney, Judge of the County Court of Rockingham County, the 11th day of April, 1871.

James Kenney

In obedience to the within writ of Habeas Corpus to me directed, I hereby certify to the Judge of the County Court of Rockingham County, that the said Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, in the said writ named, were by me received on the 25th day of March, 1871, and are detained by me in custody, under authority of a commitment issued by A. F. Turner and John Kiser, Justices of the Peace and to me directed requiring me to receive the said Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, Jr. into my jail and custody, that they may be examined by the County Court of said County of Rockingham, for the offence in this, that they did, in the month of February, 1870, feloniously, steal, kill and consume seven sheep of the value of twenty-one dollar of the goods and chattels of Oliver H. P. Dove, and which charge was made under oath before said Justices, and which said warrant of commitment I herewith return, and I now have the bodies of the said Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, Jr. as by the said writ of Habeas Corpus I am commanded.

L. S. Byrd,
Jailor of Rockingham Co.

Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, Jr. were this day brought before me, James Kenney, Judge of the County Court of Rockingham County, by L. S.

Sypd, Jailor of Rockingham County, in obedience to the writ of Habeas Corpus to day awarded, and to him directed, who also produced with the bodies of said prisoners, the warrant for their commitment to his custody, which is in the words and figures following, to wit: "Rockingham County, to wit: To Benjamin Turner, Constable of said County, and to the Keeper of the Jail of said county, These are to command you the Constable, in the name of the Commonwealth of Virginia, forthwith to convey and deliver into the custody of the Keeper of the said Jail, together with this warrant, the bodies of Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, jr. charged before us, N. F. Turner and John Hess, justices of the said county, on the oath of Hiram G. Rigleman, Hugh Radford, Joshua Custer and Washington May, with a felony by them committed in this, that the said Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, jr. in the month of February, 1870, in the said county, did feloniously steal, kill, carry away and consume seven Sheep, of the value of twenty one dollars, of the goods and chattels of Oliver H. P. Dove of the said county: and you the said Keeper of the said jail, are hereby required to receive the said Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, jr. into your jail and custody, that they may be examined for the said offence by the county court of the said county, and them there safely keep until they shall be discharged by due course of law. Given under our hand and seal this 25th day of March, 1871.

N. F. Turner, J. P. Seal

John Hess, J. P. Seal

And I, the said James Kenney, Judge as aforesaid, after hearing and considering the arguments of counsel, as well in behalf of the said Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman, and Jacob C. Yankee, jr., upon their petition, as in opposition thereto, am of the opinion that the said Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, jr., are illegally detained in the custody of said Jailor, the offence with which they are charged being a misdemeanor and not a felony. It is therefore ordered, that they be discharged therefrom upon their own recognizance in the sum of $500 each, to appear and answer an indictment at the May Term of the County Court of Rockingham County, if any should be made, and thereupon the said parties severally entered into a recognizance before me, which is in the words and figures following to wit: Rockingham County, to wit: Be it remembered, that on the 11th day of April, 1871, Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, jr., came before me, James Kenney, Judge of the County Court of Rockingham County, and severally and respectively acknowledged themselves to be indebted to the Commonwealth of Virginia, in manner and form following, that is to say: the said Reuben Rigleman in the sum of $500 good and lawful money of the United States the said Peter Rigleman in the sum of $500.00 cts. of like good and lawful money and the said Jacob C. Yankee, jr. in the sum of $500.00 cts. of like good and lawful money, to be respectively made and levied of their several goods and chattels, lands and tenements, to the use of the Commonwealth of Virginia, if the said Reuben Rigleman, Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, jr., shall make default in performance of the annexed condition. The condition of the above recognizance is such, That if the above bound Reuben Rigleman Peter Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, jr. do and shall personally appear before the County Court of Rockingham County, on the first day of the Ma

Term, 1871, thereof, then and there to answer a bill of indictment to be preferred to the Grand Jury in and for the said county against them the said Reuben Rigleman, Felix Rigleman and Jacob C. Yankee, jr. for a misdemeanor by them committed in stealing killing and consuming seven sheep of the value of twenty one dollars of the goods and chattels of Oliver H. P. Dove, whereof they stand charged and shall not depart thence without leave of the said Court, then the above recognizance shall be void and of no effect, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue. Taken and acknowledged before me the day and year first above written. James Kenney, Judge of the County Court of Rockingham County.

James Kenney Judge of the County Court of Rockingham County

In Vacation, April 14, 1871.
